

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL MARUTI KUNJ

Society Outreach Program Report

Event: Society Outreach Program at Ashiana Anmol

Delhi Public School, Maruti Kunj, organized a vibrant and engaging event as part of its Society Outreach Program at Ashiana Anmol. The program featured several activities, including a Baby Show, captivating dance and song performances, and a lively Kidzone that kept children entertained throughout the event.

The event attracted a significant number of parents, many of whom expressed keen interest in the school's programs and activities. The interactive sessions provided an excellent opportunity to address their inquiries and build connections.

Exciting prizes were awarded to participants, adding to the enthusiasm and spirit of the occasion. The event was a resounding success, reflecting the school's dedication to fostering community engagement and showcasing its commitment to holistic education.

Such initiatives continue to strengthen DPS Maruti Kunj's reputation as a leader in quality education and community involvement.
