

REPORT ON ASSEMBLY PRESENTED BY CLASS XI C1

Date: 12th December 2024

Class XI C1 hosted an engaging and informative assembly on the topic "Career Options in Commerce". The event was skillfully anchored by Ayush Khurana and Karuna, whose enthusiasm and poise made the program seamless.

The assembly commenced with the Morning Prayer, followed by an inspiring Choir Performance. Kartik set a reflective tone for the day with the Thought of the Day, and Yuvraj introduced the Word of the Day, adding to the students' vocabulary.

Adding a creative touch, Nandni recited a self-composed Hindi poem, leaving everyone inspired by its motivational message. Lakshita and Soumya delivered an enlightening article on career opportunities in the commerce stream, outlining diverse professional avenues.

A captivating roleplay followed, where students creatively showcased various career options in commerce, making the session interactive and relatable. The News Update, presented by Harshita and Priya, kept everyone informed about current happenings.

In an engaging and practical segment, Ayush Khurana and Krishika demonstrated self-defense moves, empowering students to be confident and prepared for challenging situations.

The highlight of the assembly was the Award Ceremony, where the school celebrated remarkable achievements:

Soumya secured 2nd place in the "Presentation on French Festivals" organized by Blue Bells School, Sector 4.

Ketika Jaitpuria of Class 4B won 1st prize at the 2nd inter-invitation event organized by the House of Sports Academy.

The assembly concluded with motivational insights shared by our Principal Sir, who urged students to aim high and explore their potential. The event ended with the National Anthem, evoking a sense of patriotism.
