Class 7A Assembly Report

Theme: Believe and Achieve Date: 20th May 2025

Class 7A conducted an inspiring and well-coordinated morning assembly on the theme "Believe and Achieve" on 20th May 2025. The event beautifully showcased the talent, teamwork, and dedication of every student in the class.

The program commenced with a prayer read by the Principal Sir, setting a solemn and positive tone. This was followed by a melodious choir performance on the motivational song "Andhere Jahan Mein Shamma Jala Denge". A student then presented a self-composed rap poem, mixing Hindi and English, which set an energetic and thoughtful tone for the morning.

A skit was presented featuring five students in various relatable roles - a mobile addict, a last-moment learner, a daydreamer, a concerned teacher, and an anchor. The skit delivered a strong message on self-discipline, time management, and the power of belief.

Adding further depth, students presented a role play on five Indian role models:

- Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam - The Missile Man of India, representing dreams and dedication.
- Mary Kom - The champion boxer who symbolizes grit and resilience.
- E. Sreedharan - The Metro Man, representing honesty and discipline.
- Dashrath Manjhi - The Mountain Man, a symbol of undying determination.
- Arunima Sinha - The first female amputee to climb Mount Everest, representing courage and willpower.

Each portrayal was delivered with confidence, leaving a lasting impact on the audience.

Class 7A Assembly Report

The assembly continued with a vibrant dance performance on the song "Kholo Kholo" from Taare Zameen Par, showcasing creativity and energy. This was followed by a news reading segment, where students updated everyone on recent national and international developments.

Awards were distributed, appreciating student achievements, followed by the Principal's address, where he praised the students for their hard work, coordination, and especially appreciated the beautifully designed invitation cards. He admired the enthusiasm of the comperes and even posed for a photograph with the entire class and the attractive display board.

In his inspiring words, Principal Sir motivated the students to not only believe in themselves but also to work hard to truly achieve their dreams.

The program concluded with the National Anthem, bringing the wonderful assembly to a graceful end.

A special mention: 100% participation of Class 7A students made this assembly a grand success, reflecting unity, preparation, and commitment.
